

What do you know about Web 2.0?

Connect the Web 2.0 application to its definition!

Enter the number of the definition in the column to the left of the application name.

	1	Leave comments with your voice on images and videos.
	2	An online service that enables you to broadcast short messages to your friends or "followers."
	3	A service that takes your photos and videos and synchronizes them to music.
	4	An Internet start page that you can custom tailor with all sorts of widgets and news feeds.
	5	Instant messaging and VoIP telephony combined
	6	A search engine, repository, and ranking system for blogs and online media.
	7	A social bookmarking tool that lets users save and share content they find on the Web with others.
	8	Create your own social network piece by piece, quickly, and without having to know a lick of code.
	9	Live video-streaming service that lets you host your own show and chat with your viewers.